

HAYLEY DEXIS Becomes Authorised Distributor for Klüber Lubrication

HAYLEY DEXIS is now an authorised distributor for Klüber Lubrication in the United Kingdom, adding to their industrial lubricant portfolio, and diversifying the technical lubrication offering it can offer to its customers.

Klüber's specialised lubricants will complement the existing portfolio, helping HAYLEY DEXIS to address any current gaps in the offering with highly tailored solutions for the most demanding applications. Notably, the dedicated rail division within HAYLEY DEXIS is already supplying Klüber products to its customers in the train and rail infrastructure maintenance industries, where their innovative formulations are proving highly effective.

As a direct result of the new partnership, a representative stock profile is currently being built at HAYLEY DEXIS HQ in Halesowen, with data on popular lines being gathered to ensure supply can meet the expected demand right across the branch network.

James Greenway, Lubricants Product Manager at HAYLEY DEXIS said, "We are thrilled to be able to add Klüber to our portfolio of lubricant partners. Klüber are a highly-recognised brand in the lubrication industry offering some of the most technically advanced and high performing products, providing solutions to some of the most demanding applications. We look forward to building on our relationship and delivering real value for our customers through this new partnership going forward."

Mike Davidson, Sales & Marketing Director at Klüber reiterated, "Our partnership with HAYLEY DEXIS is a powerful step forward in strengthening our brand presence across the UK. Together, we share a bold vision for delivering exceptional quality and world-class service—ensuring our customers receive nothing but the best. At Klüber, customer centricity is at the heart of everything we do, and this collaboration empowers us to elevate our commitment and deliver even greater value to those we serve."

Destiny Maximillian, Marketing Communication Specialist at Klüber added, “We’re thrilled to announce our new partnership with HAYLEY DEXIS — a collaboration built on shared values, aligned messaging, and a mutual commitment to delivering real value to our customers. By combining our innovative solutions with HAYLEY DEXIS’ market expertise, we’re creating a stronger, more responsive offering that makes it easier for customers to access the products, support, and insights they need.”
